Election Results

Congratulations to our trustees who were re-elected for a 3-year term, effective July 1: Mr. David E.R. Dangoor, Mr. Elliot Freilich, Mr. Seth Haberman, Mr. Michael Lustig, and Mr. Mark Tsesarsky.

And congratulations to our newly-elected trustee, Ms. Zoya Raynes, who was elected for a 2-year term, filling the vacancy left by Mr. Norman Benzaquen. Zoya Raynes, along with her husband, Naftali Friedman, and their two sons, Sammy and Avi, are regulars at Shearith Israel. Zoya has been serving as our board's Treasurer and has chaired numerous programs and events, most recently a Caring Connection program on depression and suicide awareness and a young families "Celebrate Israel" Shabbat luncheon.

Heartfelt appreciation to Norman Benzaquen, who has retired from the board after decades of extraordinary loyalty and service to the Congregation. We are pleased that he will continue to serve in the capacity of honorary trustee and has also agreed to assume the leadership of our 1654 Society.

We also wish to express appreciation to our trustee, Michael Katz, who will be stepping down as Segan and congratulations to Karen Daar, who, along with Michael Lustig, will serve as Segan to our Parnas, Louis Solomon.

Hazakim U'berukhim to all of our trustees and honorary trustees. May you continue to have the strength, health, and wisdom to lead our congregation into its next 365 years.

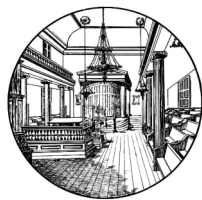

Summer Schedule Alerts

- Beginning next Shabbat, June 15 (following Shabuot), Shabbat morning services will begin at 8:30 am, and will be held in the Levy Auditorium, our Summer Sanctuary. Kiddush will be in the Elias Room. Note that no food may be brought into Levy when it is set up as a sanctuary.
- While we hope the new thermostat in Levy will keep the temperature just right, we do still have pashminas available (near the Women's Section) for those who need them.

Anniversary of the Consecration of the Crosby Street Building—1834

As the population of the city, including the Jews, was moving uptown, the Synagogue location on Mill Street became increasingly inconvenient. In 1834 the congregation built a new synagogue on Crosby Street, between Broom and Spring Street. It was 53 feet wide and 75 feet long, substantially larger than the previous two buildings. The cornerstone for this building was the same one that had been used in the first Mill Street Synagogue—a vivid symbol of the continuity of generations and traditions within the congregation. The synagogue was built with a basement, 10 feet high, which was used for housing a chapel, the congregational school, and meeting rooms.

The Crosby Street Synagogue was described in the New York Times as a “remarkably neat building.” The Boston Courier reported that it had been “constructed in admirable taste.”

WAIT-LIST ONLY

Day Trip to Touro with Rabbi Soloveichik

July 4 | Departing at 7:00 am

Rabbi Soloveichik will be leading us on an all-day field trip to Newport, Rhode Island, home of our historic sister synagogue, the Touro Synagogue.

We have reached capacity; however there is a chance that some spaces will open up. For details on how to sign up for our wait-list, visit shearithisrael.org/touro-trip.
