To: Worshippers at the Touro Synagogue
From: Congregation Shearith Israel

Dear friends,

As we write this note, what is most on our minds is the upcoming Touro Shabbaton that we will be hosting at Shearith Israel this Shabbat. We have had the opportunity to connect with the registrants, and we just know it will be a wonderful get-together.

But this will not be the last opportunity for our communities to come together through in-person activities and virtual programs (such as the session led by Rev. Edinger just a couple weeks back). We at Shearith Israel are committed to furthering the bonds of friendship and trust between our community and those worshippers at Touro who are as committed as we are to a vibrant future for the Synagogue. We share a love for the Touro Synagogue and a commitment to its legacy and role in the Newport community and beyond. Together, through the efforts of dedicated Shearith Israelites and Touroites, peace and harmony will describe our future together. It will take energy and patience, and we have those in abundance.

We will be thinking of you who are unable to join us this coming shabbat.

Shabbat Shalom.
