VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Members: Would you like to be a Shearith Israel Goodwill Ambassador?

Join our new Welcoming & Hospitality Committee

Shearith Israel insiders know that, on the one hand, we have a very formal and dignified service, while, at the same time, our community is warm, friendly, and even “down to earth.” However, some newcomers or visitors who are not accustomed to our service may find it confusing or may experience our formality and decorum as intimidating.

We are eager to help newer members and guests “find their way,” settle in, and get to know us and for all members to feel integrated and embraced by the kebila. Toward this end, we are launching a Welcoming and Hospitality Committee led by our newest trustee, Leah Albek.

We are currently looking for members to serve as volunteer Sanctuary Goodwill Ambassadors and Shabbat Meal Hosts — if either opportunity interests you, please let Leah know at leahalbek@gmail.com.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mazal tob to Avi Toledo upon his recent marriage.

Congratulations to Anwar Suleiman, upon the production of his play, The Arranged Matrimony, which will be playing at the Theater for the New City in September.

Congratulations to Barbara Schofield Suleiman upon the publication of her book The Golden Cobweb, which is available on Amazon.

In celebration of Neta Wiznia becoming a Bat Mitzvah, the Wiznia Family invites the entire Congregation, on Shabbat, August 27, to a festive kiddush luncheon, following morning services and a bat mitzvah program (main service will be in the Sanctuary, women's services will be on Paved Paradise, and everyone will join in the Sanctuary following services for the bat mitzvah program).

If you've been following parnas Lou Solomon's weekly leadership updates, you will have seen the Shearith Israel definitive anthology of summer songs posted in last week's message. A collection of dozens of submissions, some classics and some off-beats, spanning many decades and genres, submitted by Shearith Israel members and friends, has been Spotified by Lia Solomon — check out our emails for the link.

Enjoy and keep following Lou's updates. He's always happy to receive your reactions.
