TISHA B'AB

Shearith Israel's uniquely dramatic service tells of the tragedy of the destruction and sings the dirges of mourning for the Temple. Our Spanish & Portuguese service's rich musical tradition for the service on this day may go back to the time of the Spanish Expulsion, the anniversary of which is also observed on this date. For Tisha B'Ab, the Reader's Desk and Holy Ark are draped in black. The evening and morning services are conducted from a special table - also draped in black - rather than from the Reader's Desk. The synagogue lights are dimmed, so that congregants follow services with small flashlights.

Shabbat Hazon

Prophetic passages of reproof and ominous foreboding are designated as the haftarah readings on the three Sabbath between the Fast of Tammuz and the Fast of Abs. Sephardic custom is to refer to these Sabbaths by the opening words of the particular haftarah read on that day. Shabbat Hazon refers to the opening "vision" of Isaiah, parallel to the opening of Jeremiah. Since it precedes the Fast of Ab, this haftarah is read by one well-versed in lamentation.

A Note on Motza'e Shabbat

This year, Shabbat Hazon becomes the Eve of the Fast of Ab. Saturday afternoon Minha is held early at 3:30 pm, so that all may go home to eat their Third Meal at supertime and begin their fast by sunset (8:07 pm), concluding Sabbath (at 8:47 pm, by reciting "barukh hamabdil ben kodesh lehol") and returning to the synagogue for the Motza'e Shabbat/Fast of Ab Arbit Service, which is called for 9:10 pm. The service begins on this occasion with the hazzan reciting the blessing "bore meore haesh."

On Sunday evening, the fast is concluded with habdala over a cup of wine, without spices and without a candle.
