Customs of Mourning for Jerusalem

As a sign of mourning for the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem, it is customary to avoid eating meat, trimming or shaving one's hair, or to wear new or freshly laundered clothing, during the week of the Fast of Ab. Ashkenazim observe this custom from the first day of Ab (a period often called "the Nine Days"). Sephardim, however, observe customs of mourning only during the week in which the Fast day actually occurs. Whichever custom one follows, it is apt to remember the words of our Sages (Ta'anit 30b): כל המתאבל על ירושלים זוכה ורואה בשמחתה - Whoever mourns for Jerusalem will merit to share in her joy.
